Village Mall a Reality

MOKENA - The proposed Mall, to serve commuters and residents and leave Rock Island rail passengers passing through Mokena a more pleasing image, is to become a fact.

The property along Front St., from Mokena St. to within a short space of Wolf Rd. now belongs to the Village of Mokena. It is a gift of the Mokena Chamber of Commerce.

The Mall idea was conceived by the Chamber when Will Tuttle, now mayor of the village, was its president. At that time the Rock Island Lines were asking $19,000 for their property, 647 feet long and 50 feet deep. Hauck Oil Co. which owned the piece adjoining on the west-running to Wolf Rd., had a price of $11,500 on its parcel.

Since the Chamber of Commerce did not have that much money on hand it was proposed that the village buy the land under contract and the Chamber would reimburse the Village. Chamber officials also declared the organization's intention of improving the property. The cinder-covered lot is to be re-surfaced, walks built, planters installed for flowers and shrubbery and additional illumination provided.

On Tuesday the Chamber bought the Rock Island property and gave the village a quit claim deed, a cash deal that represented a much better deal than the one originally proposed. The Rock Island gave more land and cut its price. The piece purchased by the Chamber of Commerce still had 647 feet of frontage but the depth was increased to 75 feet. And the price was $10,000.

The Chamber had $5,500 in the bank it had received from business firms and individuals expressly for the Mall project. The other $3,500 needed to round out the purchase price was contributed by the Hauck Oil Co.

The transaction was completed in the law office of George E. Sangmeister at Frankfort. Sangmeister, village attorney for Mokena, prepared the quit claim through which the tract was transferred to the village. Robert Wiley represented the railroad at the meeting, and James Cooper, president of the Chamber of Commerce, and Chester Ebert, treasurer, paid over the money and accepted the deed from the Rock Island. Then in turn they gave a quit claim deed to Mayor Tuttle, representing the village board. Ebert was there in a double capacity, an officer of the

Annex Two Industrial Sites to Frankfort

FRANKFORT - Bradley Industries, of New Jersey, is to establish a book match plant on Center Rd. It has purchased 11 acres from Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Hossbach, about 1,500 feet south of the Elgin, Joliet & Eastern Railway tracks, and plans to erect brick structure, 240 by 90 feet, designed to fit in with the 1890 theme.

The village board at its recent meeting approved the change from R-1 to I-1 as recommended by the Frankfort zoning board of appeals. The village trustees also adopted ordinances annexing this piece and a 9.665-acre tract at Center and Laraway roads. This piece butting on Laraway Rd., is to be used by Kenneth Emsinger, owner of Emsinger Motor Lines. A metal building, 100 by 200 feet in area and 24 feet high, is to be erected there, as well as three freight loading docks.

George E. Sangmeister was the attorney in both cases.

Two Receive Degrees

LOCKPORT - Two Lockport residents were among the 148 graduates at North Central College's 105th annual Commencement in Naperville May 31.

They were Curtis Dunn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dunn, Rural Rte. 3, and John Rogers, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Rogers, 2005 Hamilton St. Both received Bachelor of Arts degrees and were biology majors.

He also represents the developer, Paul Wirth, who plans to build apartments in Lincoln Meadows, south of U.S. 30 and adjacent to Elm St. The zoning board of appeals had approved the zoning change to permit such construction but a group of residents objectors held up village action until its next meeting Monday.

Formal objection to the zoning change was filed by Steven Axelrod and others. With the formal objection on file it would require a vote of three quarters of the board to approve the zoning board's recommendation. This means six of the seven members of the board and when the proposal came up only six, including Mayor Glenn Warning, were present.

Axelrod and Andrew Jones, who were accompanied by some of objectors, told the trustees they hoped to have the property put to use as a recreation area. They displayed plans showing a baseball diamond, tennis courts and a portion reserved as a playground for younger children.

The property is low and needs fill, a fact which influenced the zoning board in its decision as it would cost more to put it in shape for single family dwellings.

Objectors say the tract can be put in condition for a recreation area and they prefer that to multiple dwellings. The property is owned by Armand D'Andrea, of D'Andrea Construction Co., of Joliet, who put in the sanitary sewer system at Frankfort. If D'Andrea declines to alter his commitment with Wirth, or is unable to do so the recreation plan would be dead and Axelrod told the board the objections would be withdrawn.

Prior to last week's meeting memoranda was left at many of the homes in Frankfort, asking householders to call each member of the village board and tell him the caller was strongly opposed to the re-zoning of the property to permit apartments.

It was suggested that the husband and wife each make six calls, one to each trustee. The names of the trustees were listed, and their telephone numbers. Mayor Warning's name was not listed.

Some of the residents of Connecticut Hills have asked the zoning board to re-classify a parcel at the west end of the subdivision, north of U.S. 30, from business or commercial back to residential. The matter was put over to the zoning board's next meeting, June 17, to give Arthur T. McIntosh, the owner, or a representative, a chance to explain his plans.

Name Walter Bixby TCP vice president

Walter E. Bixby, General Manager of Tri-County Publishing Company and the Graphic Newspapers, was promoted to vice-president of the publishing company June 1, 1970. In making the announcement James Godbold, president of Tri-County, stated that this new promotion for Walter Bixby is further indication of the company's policy for recognizing devoted service and responsible leadership.

Mr. Bixby joined TCP in June 1968 as editorial director of the Graphic Newspapers. He was subsequently named general manager of the newspapers and on October 1, 1969 became general manager of Tri-County Publishing Company.

Eberhardt Requests Annexation

LOCKPORT — Dick Eberhardt, president of Eberhardt Construction Company of Orland Park and the developer of a proposed mobile home area in Lockport, has asked the Lockport city council to consider annexing 60 acres of the property into the city.

Eberhardt owns a 100-acre tract on the south side of Division Street, and 40 acres of the tract are already in the city. Mayor George Nordstrom said he had talked with Eberhardt and explained to the council that Eberhardt is presently involved with two Zoning Boards, Will County and Lockport. The annexation discussion will take place at the council's next meeting, June 15.

Several Lockport residents appeared before the council to protest the proposed development. William Waldon, a member of the District 205 High School Board of Education, told the council to "take a long look at the plan and then frown on it." He explained that he was a representative of the complete board of education and that they all felt this development was not in the best interest of the schools in Lockport, many of which are under severe financial strain at the present.

Myron (Sam) Majak, of E. Division St., presented the council with a petition bearing more than 1,000 signatures asking the council not to allow rezoning or permit the mobile home park to be developed.

In further discussion, the mayor told another resident that should Eberhardt's mobile home area not be developed, he could still build other low-cost housing. "He can build anything he wants to build, as long as it conforms to our code," Nordstrom stated.

The council also heard a letter regarding the old Central School property. The city's suit against the District 91 board of education has been dismissed by Judge Stewart Hutchison in Circuit Court. Don Murphy, city clerk, said the city has 30 days in which to file an appeal.

However, the council voted to drop the matter. The motion to take no further action was proposed by alderman Swen Nelson, and seconded by alderman Len Strahanoski. The mayor challenged Strahanoski's second on the grounds that his brother, Ron Strahanoski, is president of the District 91 board of education. E. J. Korst, the city attorney, said the relationship had no bearing on the case.

Although the city has decided to drop any further action, the mayor said the suit would be continued by another group, on a taxpayer's basis. The mayor further stated he would like the minutes to reflect that he, personally, thought the city should appeal the court's decision.

In other business, the council heard a request from Ray Fenelli, a resident of Lincoln Street, to investigate the possibilities of installing a stop sign at the corner of 12th and Lincoln Streets. Fenelli, who represented a group of residents, in the area, said that present traffic conditions are very dangerous for the many small children who reside in the neighborhood. The council referred the matter to the street committee and a decision will be announced at the next meeting.

Alderman George Wolfe announced the city's annual spring clean-up will be held Saturday, June 13, starting at 7 a.m. Wolfe suggested that residents place all unwanted items on the curb Friday night, as it is not known what section of the city will be collected first. Western Disposal has requested no dirt, rocks or branches longer than four feet. This year the clean-up will be held one Saturday only.

Chamber and of the village, being a member of the board of trustees. Also present was Cadet Cottingham, of the Mokena Chamber of Commerce and a prime mover in the Mall project.

At the time the village purchase proposal was made, a referendum was held and the proposition lost. Since then the Chamber of Commerce decided to go ahead on its own and when it had $10,000 in its Mall fund it bought the land and gave it to the village.

According to Cottingham, the improvements also will be paid for by the Chamber of Commerce.

Under conditions of the sale the railroad has right of access to its electrical controls and it also will erect a fence along south line of the Mall. Agreement also was made that commuters shall have use of the area for parking as long as the Rock Island operates commuter service.

Nixon Launches War on Drugs

President Nixon recently issued a statement on drug abuse that should be read by every American:

"In recent months, there have been stories about two heroin addicts that starkly illustrated the ominous nature of the narcotics problems. Like many addicts, one of them not only used the drug, but sold it. Their stories were, in fact, different from those of other drug addicts in only one major aspect: each was only 12 years old.

"One boy is being treated for addiction at a clinic. The other died from an overdose of heroin.

"Drug addiction among school age youth is increasing at an alarming rate. Although funds for drug education and training have grown six-fold between fiscal 1969 and fiscal 1971, the situation calls for much greater effort."

The President outlined six major points of the new effort. These included teacher training, education, and other projects and will be covered in subsequent columns on Mental Health matters, owing to their importance to every citizen and community in the country.

Nixon promised an invigorated effort in the field of marijuana tied in with the six-point program of training and education.

"Closely related to these projects," he said, "is this Administration's decision to more than double the amount of money that will be spent this fiscal year on research into the effects of marijuana on man."

Lack of research knowledge, in-depth and on a wide scale, has been one of the chief hampering factors in building bases for sound programs to deal with the widespread and much-talked-about problem of marijuana smoking.

As a part of the stepped-up Federal effort against drug abuse announced by President Nixon, a new publication has been prepared, presenting the latest scientific answers to some of the most frequently asked questions about drug abuse.

The 42-page booklet is being made widely available through the National Clearinghouse for Drug Abuse Information, which was also established to aid the invigorated attack on the drug problem.

More than 100,000 Americans lead totally unproductive lives because of their addiction to narcotics. The blight of illegal drug traffic -- the lives it ruins and the lives it takes -- is a serious concern for every American.

For the first time, all of the concerned Federal agencies and departments have pooled their knowledge to produce a single source book on the national drug problem. The answers are based on the latest research findings of the National Institute of Mental Health and are presented in accord with the policies and programs of the Defense Department; the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare; the Department of Justice; the Department of Labor; and the Office of Economic Opportunity.

Unfortunately, the book does not provide all of the answers to all of the questions about drugs. The causes and consequences of drug abuse are not yet fully understood. But the concerted pursuit of knowledge by all concerned Federal agencies continues.

This publication will be distributed to several million readers throughout the country.

The content of "A Federal Source Book: Answers to the Most Frequently Asked Questions About Drug Abuse," covers general questions and answers; marijuana; hallucinogens; stimulants; sedatives; narcotics; and other abused drugs. It also contains a glossary of drug terms.

Assessor To Visit Lemont

LEMONT — Cook County Assessor P.J. Cullerton has announced that his Mobile Field Office will serve property owners in Lemont on Wednesday and Thursday. It will be located at the Lemont Shopping Center, 1100 S. State St.

The Field Office is staffed with experts who are available for making immediate inspections of properties to ascertain the accuracy of assessments. Property owners wishing to take advantage of the facility should contact Cullerton's office in advance with their real estate numbers in order to facilitate the checking of information.

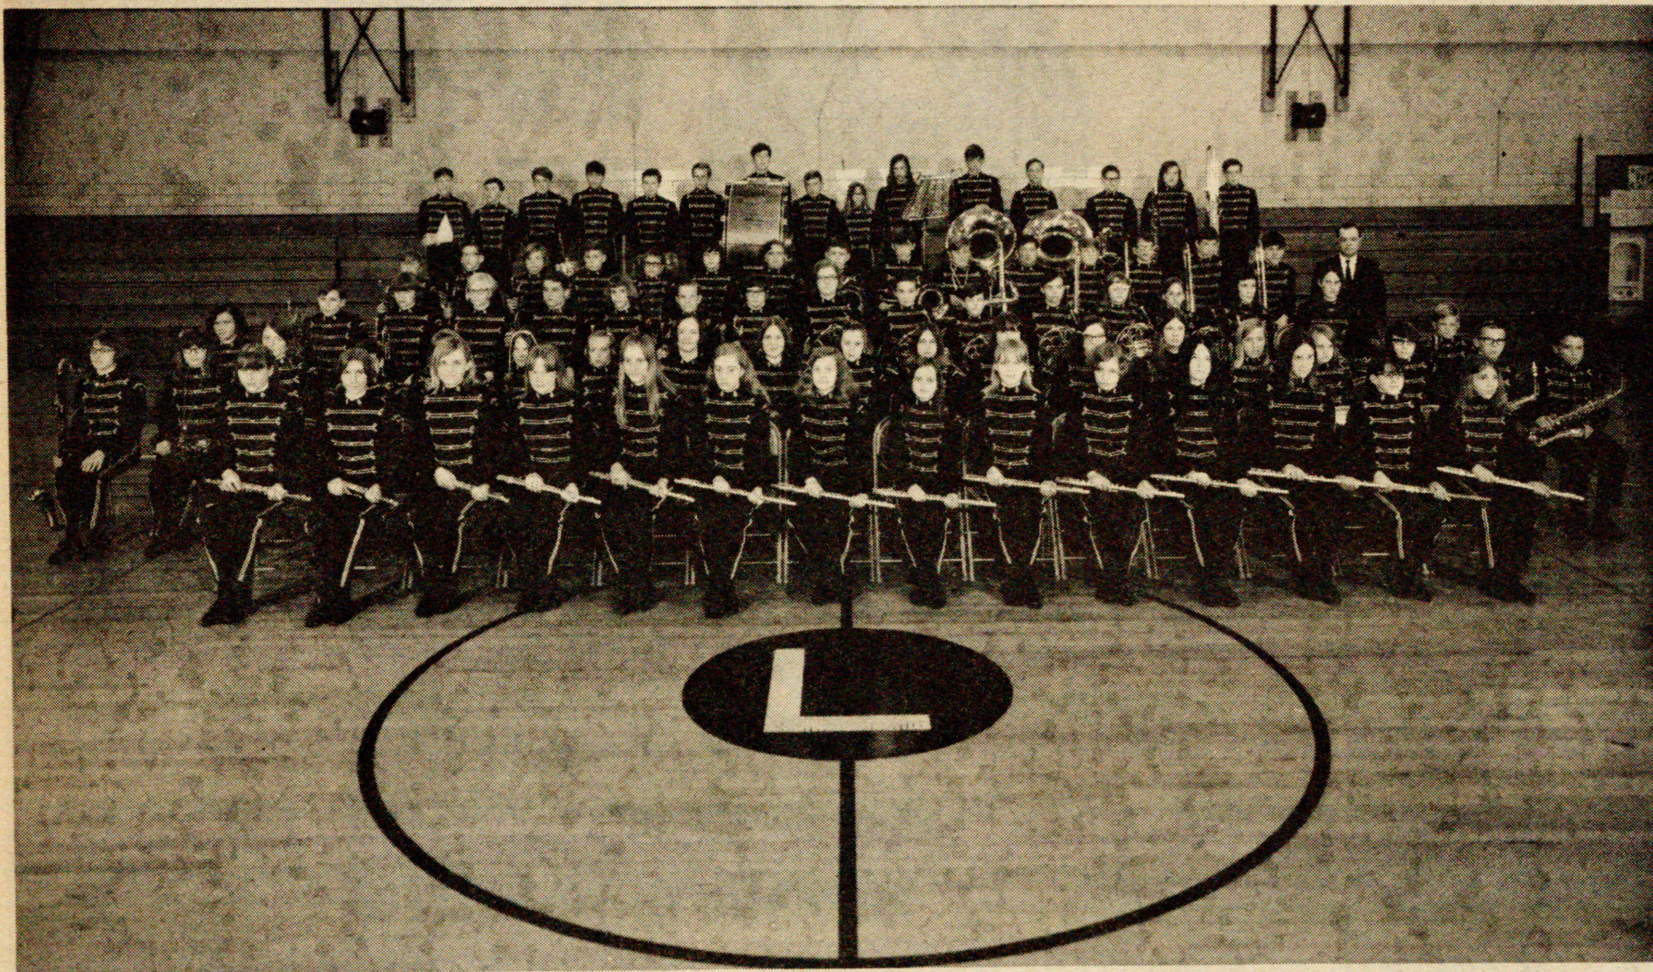

The Mobile Field Office will be open from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. on both days.

County Clerks School

SOUTHWEST — County Clerk Clara Hartley Woodard (R) has been named to a committee which will assist new county clerks elected in 1970 in learning the duties of their office. Mrs. Woodard was named to the committee at the Zone 4 monthly meeting of County Clerk's and recorders in Ottawa last week.

She has served as Will County Clerk since 1962. Both County Clerk Woodard and Will County Recorder of Deeds Kenneth George (R) attended the Zone meeting. Mrs. Woodard presented a report concerning proposals before the constitutional convention which affect the clerks and recorders offices.

The officials also studied legislation pending before the Illinois General Assembly. An Election Reform bill which would provide a second shift of five judges to county ballots at election time will not apply to Will County because the County Clerk installed automatic voting machines in 1968. The second shift is needed in areas still using paper ballots.

THE LOCKPORT DISTRICT 92 band will compete in the Midwest National Band Championships at Rock Falls, Ill., Saturday. Bands from several states are entered in the concert, inspection and marching competition. The District 92 band is comprised of students from Ludwig, Reed and Walsh schools. It will be competing for honors in concert parade and best over-all categories. The band has won every contest it has entered over the past five years. Symphonic band has been rated first by every judge at district and state contest for the past six years. Over the last five years the band has won 24 trophies and seven plaques.

Asks Bids On Addition To N.L. Village Hall

NEW LENOX — At its regular meeting July 1, the New Lenox village board will open bids on a proposed addition to the village hall. A room, 21 by 40, is to be added at the rear of the present structure.

La Leche League

SOUTHWEST — The La Leche League of Joliet, Group 2, will meet for the fourth of a series of informal discussions about successful breast-feeding on Thursday, June 11 at 8 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Virginia Libersher, 805 Woods, Joliet. For further information telephone discussion leader Mrs. Sue Riley, 436-3359, or Mrs. Libersher, 726-5820.

This will give the board larger quarters for its meetings and make more office space available in the older section.

At its meeting last week the village board accepted the bid of Crown-Trygg Corp. for the maintenance on motor fuel tax streets. Its bid of $16,409.65 was the lowest of three submitted and well under the $23,866 of the engineer's estimate. Persico Paving's bid was $18,609 and that of Blacktop Paving was $19,257.80.

Plans for the work submitted to the state highway department were prepared by Robert E. Hamilton, village engineer.

John Djerf, an associate of Hamilton, was instructed to get bids on a drainage project involving the east end of Inner Ct. and N. Cedar Rd. The water will be carried in a buried culvert. An open ditch would be about $1,400 cheaper but one of the property owners will not grant an easement for an open ditch.

The engineer was instructed to get an estimate of cost on installing new traffic lights at Cedar Rd. and U.S. 30. The Illinois highway department complains that the lights are below standard but will not aid financially in replacing them. Recently the lights were not working. It was finally discovered that someone had wrecked the cables underground and then patched them up only to have them break down again. Who and what damaged the wiring is a mystery, unsolved to date. There are many residents who feel that traffic moved better when the intersection was

Moose Bicycle Check

LOCKPORT — Frank De Barbera, civic affairs chairman for the Lockport Loyal Order of the Moose 1557, has announced that the Moose will sponsor a bicycle check Saturday at the old Central School grounds, 9th and Hamilton Streets, between 10 a.m. and noon.

The check is open to all residents of the Lockport area. The safety of a child can be helped with this program.

Also, for one lucky winner, there will be a brand new bike.

put on a four-way stop basis.

The price of trick gates for the Cedar St. crossing of the Rock Island is going up. Roy Dowle, village business manager, reported to the trustees that the cost would be $21,000 but the railroad wouldn't put up a dime. Mayor Joseph Hartung asked Dowle to see what the village might get out of the state, if anything, for such a project.

The village board has also purchased a squad car from Cooper-Show Ford Co., Frankfort, for $1,995.52. Cooper-Show's was the only bid submitted. Earl Schroeder, police commissioner, told the board he did not expect more than one or two bids because there is little money in such deals for the agency.

Spring Clean-Up

Residents of Lockport will once again be given a little help with spring cleaning when the city council provides a free spring garbage pick-up this Saturday.

So, now is the time to haul all the things up from the basement and down from the attic, and into the street, where they will disappear, as if by magic. There are only three things that cannot be thrown away . . . if you have been harboring dirt, rocks or branches more than four feet long in your attic, the city requests that you leave them there. That's not so bad; they might come in handy sometime. When the country recovers from its current antique phobia, the next 'in' thing may well be rock gardens in the attic. However, your personal metal coat-hanger collection, that 4,000 feet of knotted twine you've been saving, the egg cartons that would make such a great Christmas tree ornaments if you could ever find them in December, and the clothes at the bottom of the laundry basket that no longer fit anybody might as well be given the old heave-ho.

It's also a good time to clean up the area surrounding your abode. All the things that turned up when the snow melted can be disposed of, as well as a good many things standing between your car and its rightful place in the garage. George Nordstrom, Lockport's mayor, is determined to have a clean, nice-looking town. Several projects he's worked on in the past months have been done with this idea in mind. He did not create the spring clean-up, which we've had for several years, but it certainly fits in with his plans. Have you looked at the front of City Hall lately? If you haven't, do so soon. There are great improvements, and many people responsible for them.

So, let's pitch in and clean up what we're responsible for . . . think of all the room there will be and we'll have a town we can all be pleased to call our own. The council suggests that residents put things out on Friday night, as pick-up will begin at 7 a.m. Saturday morning.

All Work, No Pay

There are many individuals, groups, organizations and even corporations today that devote time, money and efforts to a considerable number of good works and various causes. Just how many is not known. That, apparently, was one of the few questions not included on the long census form distributed in the early spring — and we have no idea as to where to look for such data.

We can tell you, however, that there are 21,000 men in Illinois actively engaged in being good neighbors. The figures, supplied Herbert D. Brown, director of the Illinois Department of Law Enforcement, represents the number of volunteer firemen in the state.

According to Director Brown there are 28,500 firemen in Illinois and of that number 74 per cent are volunteers.

There are more small towns than large ones and the small ones lack the revenue to provide for a paid fire department. Still the number of volunteers is as surprising as it is impressive.

"Fire fighting is a demanding and dangerous job vital to the welfare of every citizen in our state," Brown points out. "But few people realize that 21,000 men are doing this on a volunteer basis.

It is a responsibility of the Department of Law Enforcement, Brown said, to provide training for these men to upgrade the standards of fire protection in Illinois.

His division of fire prevention has given $100,000 to the University of Illinois this year to conduct regional, general and instructor training courses for volunteer and paid firemen, Brown said.

The department also participates in sponsoring an annual fire college at the U of I. This year it will run from Thursday through Sunday.

This money is well spent and we do not believe any taxpayer will raise objections to such expenditures.

Fire prevention and fire fighting work in this area is all done by volunteers. They spend hundreds of hours every year in drilling and studying to become proficient in the use of equipment and know-how in battling fires and controlling damage.

These men are subject to call around the clock. They come out in all kinds of weather. These volunteers don't have any payroll to sign and they don't get any money either. That shows they are community-minded and that being good neighbors helps them. Tax money is money well-spent.

Frankfort Budget Is $337,075

FRANKFORT — The Frankfort Village Board has adopted its appropriation ordinance for the 1970-71 fiscal year, which began May 1 and ends next April 30. The measure provides for expenditures totaling $337,075. Sometime next month the board probably will adopt its tax levy.

Revenue to finance village projects comes from real and personal property taxes and from other sources. Most of it comes from sources other than taxes on real estate.

The fact that the village has appropriated $337,075 does not mean that it will spend that amount, according to Village attorney August Santoro, who prepared the ordinance. The law requires that money spent by a taxing body must be appropriated in advance.

Water and sewer expenses are paid out of the rates charged for service.

Also included in the ordinance is the sum appropriated for the library, $11,500.

A copy of the ordinance, listing the expenditures in detail, appears on another page in this paper.

Rogers Quits To Take School Post In Maine

MOKENA — Coleman A. Rogers has resigned from the Mokena School Board to accept an administrative position in Westbrook, Me.

Coleman spent 11 years in the Mokena system, serving as a teacher, principal and most recently as assistant superintendent. A graduate of Eastern Nazarene College in Maine, Rogers has long sought to return to his home state.

Gene H. Morrall will replace Rogers as assistant superintendent and also serve as principal of Willowcrest School and assist Supt.

James Ennis in handling the business affairs of the district.

Morrall attended Joliet Junior College and received a Bachelor of Science degree from Bradley University. He also earned his Masters in educational administration at Northern Illinois. Currently finishing his eighth year in the Mokena district, he has served as a teacher and principal at Carpenter Street School and principal at Willowcrest.

Ennis also announced that he will delay his leave of absence for one year. He had been granted a nine-month leave to complete work on his doctorate at Illinois State but Rogers' resignation caused him to alter his plans.

In other personnel moves, Charles Beck was promoted to assistant principal at Willowcrest and he will also continue with his teaching duties. Mrs. Carmen Windle has been named head teacher at Carpenter and Mrs. Eleanor Stewart took a similar post at Willowcrest. Both will also continue in their present teaching capacities.

Helping Hand Aids Children

LINCOLN ESTATES — A unit of Helping Hand designed to aid youngsters who might get hurt, ill, accosted or threatened while playing or walking about the area has been established in Lincoln Estates.

There are 36 homes that now have the sign of the organization, a red hand on a white background, displayed on a window or a door. The youngster who needs assistance can get it by going to one of these homes.

Mrs. Dennis Wheeler, who found these helpers, would like to have more. Anyone willing to help is asked to contact her. The Helping Hand has units in Park Forest and Tinley Park. Many of the members belong to parent-teacher groups.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

from Southwest Graphic readers are welcomed. Letters should not exceed 300 words and must be the original copy. Each must be signed, though the name of the writer will not be published if requested. The Southwest Graphic will exercise the right to edit letters to comply with these limitations.

Dear Editor:

Is your son playing organized baseball this year?

If not, it's the fault of the parents. In Frankfort 70 boys between the ages of 10-12 tried out for two Little League teams. Thirty were selected and will play organized baseball this summer. Forty could not be selected. They won't be able to play organized baseball unless their fathers or some other interested persons are willing to volunteer one or two nights weekly to coach them.

On behalf of ourselves and the 40 disappointed boys we ask you to please contact any one of us and volunteer your help.

Al Carlson, who has won several letters through his athletic prowess, had a four and one record against the state's best. In their second outing at the Aurora East Invitational May 9, Lincoln-Way players performed better. The varsity finished with a 9 and 11 record, while the Frosh won the first place trophy.

Adrian Demus, Rich Binzen and Marie Hovi won individual awards as the best players at their positions. With the talent displayed by the freshmen, Lincoln-Way is expected to develop some excellent chess teams.

Western Open At Beverly

SOUTHWEST — Three highly important factors affecting touring golf professionals are involved in the 67th Western Open golf championship to be played Thursday through Sunday at Beverly C.C., 87th and West-em.

Directly at stake is the second of four qualifying rounds for the lucrative Alcan Golfer of the Year tournament, a possible alternate starting position in the World Series of Golf, and qualification for the annual P.G.A. tournament through standings on the money winning list.

The Western Open, along with the recently completed New Orleans Open, the IVB Philadelphia Classic and the Avco Classic tournaments, determine 12 invitees to the Alcan, with its $55,000 first prize money. Combined 72-hole scores of the best three of these four tests decide the qualifiers.

Last year's Western Open champion, Billy Casper, won the 1969 Alcan.

The World Series of Golf matches the winners of the U.S. and British Opens, the P.G.A. championship and the Masters. Only Casper, the Masters winner, has qualified to date. In the event of a double winner in any of these events, the Western Open victor will complete the foursome.

The Western Open offers $130,000 in prize money, with $26,000 for first place. Touring golfers are striving to place 70th or better on the money list by July 1, to earn invitations to the P.G.A. championship, if they have not otherwise qualified.

Three golfers, Miller Barber, Howie Johnson and Bob Charles, are tied for the top qualifying spot in the Alcan, each with a 278 stroke total for 72 holes at New Orleans. One shot back is Lou Graham, 279, followed by George Archer, Casper, Jim Colbert, Dave Stockton, Rod Curl and Gary Player, 282.

Committee members are Robert Bishop, Amoco Chemicals Corp.; Stanley Burd, Cel-Fibe Division of Johnson & Johnson; Darlene Davis, Will-Grundy Manufacturers' Assn.; Tony Davis, Commonwealth Edison; Norm Desmarais, Uniroyal, Inc.; John Furman, United Electric Co.; John Minzing, Will-Grundy; John Murray, Cerco Corp.; Jim Pekny, Joliet Warehouse & Transfer Co.; Pat Pirc, Will-Grundy; Ray Rafter, U.S. Steel; Mary Ann Vargo, St. Joseph Hospital; and Julius Vargo, Jarke Corp.

A full day of golf, entertainment, refreshments, dinner and prizes is planned.

Santa Fe Action

SOUTHWEST — Two longstanding Midwest stock car racers will continue their comeback efforts at Santa Fe Speedway this weekend as the southwest side clay oval highlights another action-packed weekend of stock car racing. A ten event program featuring 25-lappers for late model and sportsman autos spotlight Saturday's racing card while Sunday's program adds another high-flying spectator race to its regular program. Saturday's races begin at 8:30 p.m. while Sunday's start one-half hour earlier. Time trials precede the opening race by one hour.

Bill Van Allen, six-time Santa Fe Speedway champion and prominent stocker around the Midwest, is trying a comeback this year in a 1969 Chevelle. Van Allen, holder of 25 and 50-mile speedway records, presently ranks tenth in the point standings.

Skippy Michaels of Palos Park, who raced back in the 1950's at Soldier Field, is also trying to reestablish himself among the top at Santa Fe. Michaels, who ranks 14th right now, has looked quite impressive of late.

Other late model pilots who have been charging at the top of the pack include Danny Albrecht, 3956 S. Archer in Chicago, Larry Jackson of Lyons, Jim O'Connor of Kankakee and present point leader Dick Nelson, 4856 W. Division in Chicago.

Stock car races are held every Saturday and Sunday night at Santa Fe Speedway. Motorcycles fly around the Midwest's busiest racing oval each Wednesday night.

Santa Fe Speedway is located at 91st and Wolf Road approximately 20 minutes from downtown Chicago via the Stevenson Expressway.

Illiana Sets Auto Card

The United Auto Racing Assn. Midgits take over Illiana Speedway Friday in the track's next program. Midgits also will dominate the program at the Schererville, Ind., oval on June 28.

The Taft Grade School student council recently completed a community improvement project. They cleaned up the cemetery across from the school. They also cut the grass and weeds and are definitely to be commended...

James Moushon was recently initiated into Pi Gamma Mu, a social Science Honor Society, at Dakota Wesleyan University...

Mayor George Nordstrom has planned a great 4th of July celebration for Lockport. Lots of fireworks have been ordered, and it sounds as if a great time will be had by all. The show will be held at Dellwood Park...

Will there or will there not be co-curricular activities in Lockport's high schools next year? Everybody should find out once and for all at the school

Promoted At Lewis

Also the question of splitting the district should be decided tonight (Wednesday) at the hearing in the county building in Joliet at 7:30 p.m. Representatives from all municipalities involved are expected to testify...

The Western Open is this week, June 11-14, at the Beverly County Club in Golf, Ill. Forrest Tucker, now appearing at the Martinique, will participate in the Evans Scholars Foundation Pro-Am on June 10. And I'll be there and let's all hope it doesn't rain...

If you live in Lockport and own a car, and do not have a city sticker, you are very liable to be ticketed in the near future. Mayor Nordstrom recently said the city will sell stickers right up to the end of November, if necessary...

SECTION XIII. Should any section of this Ordinance or subdivision hereof be found unconstitutional by a court of competent jurisdiction, such a finding shall not affect the remaining portions of this ordinance.

SECTION XIV. All ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict herewith or any section hereof are hereby repealed.

SECTION XV. This ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage, approval and publication according to law.

Immunized 150,000

SOUTHWEST - An estimated 150,000 children were immunized last week against rubella (German measles) in suburban Cook County, according to the Cook County Department of Public Health.

The department warned parents that a small percentage of immunized children will have reactions to the vaccine. These reactions are rash, swollen lymph nodes in the neck or joint pains.

The joint pains may occur 18-45 days after the injection, generally last only a few days and cause no injury to the joint. They are relieved by aspirins.

 insurance Questions

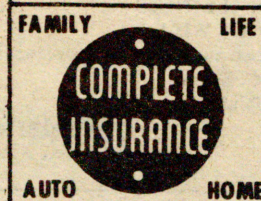

QUESTION:

Are the premiums for the various types of insurance the same on a camper as they would be on a pick-up truck or the same as for a car or for a trailer?

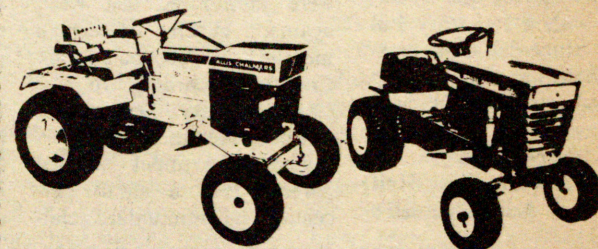

ANSWER:

This is a question you should take up personally with your insurance agent because there are so many variables. Is it single unit construction or is it a camper body temporarily affixed to a pick-up body and is it later removed and the pick-up used as a truck. Does it have only seasonal use and so forth.

We know a nice, safe place where your money can be earning 5 $\frac{3}{4}$ %. And earning. And earning. And earning.

We see by the papers that many people feel insecure about money.

The stock market goes up or it goes down. We have inflation or recession. Our economy gets better or it gets worse.

Wouldn't it be great if you could save money at high interest? And have some kind of guarantee that it would be safe and go on earning high interest even while conditions remain uncertain?

You can. Consider these savings plans:

5 $\frac{3}{4}$ % "Golden 24" Savings Certificates. This savings plan allows you to purchase "Golden 24" Savings Certificates for as little as \$100 and earn 5 $\frac{3}{4}$ % guaranteed interest. Of course, the more you save, the more you earn. The only requirement is that the funds remain on deposit for 24 months from date of purchase. This offers you the highest bank interest rate for this type of plan allowed by federal law!

And, depending on certificate amount, earned interest can be withdrawn monthly, or quarterly, or semi-annually, or annually.

Suppose you prefer to not have your funds on deposit for 24 months, but still want to earn high interest. Consider this plan:

5 $\frac{1}{2}$ % "Golden 12" Savings Certificates. With this savings plan, you can purchase guaranteed 5 $\frac{1}{2}$ % interest certificates for as little as \$100, and your funds must remain on deposit just 12 months. Earnings may be withdrawn in several ways depending on certificate amount. Here again, the more you save, the more you earn.

Can you still earn high interest but have your funds on deposit for even less time? Yes. With this plan:

5% Golden Savings. This has been an excellent plan for our savers for two years. You can open this guaranteed 5% account for only $100. Your funds must remain on deposit 90 days. But you can make additional deposits at any time and in any amount. No matter which plan you prefer, also consider this:

Your interest earns and earns and earns. On all three of these savings plans, interest is compounded continuously from the day of deposit. And each depositor is insured to $20,000 by the F.D.I.C.

Well, you now have the facts. You know how to protect your savings and earn guaranteed top interest at the same time. So why not come in and open one of these accounts?

After all, it's in your best interest.
